

The K-Love station in my area serves me and my community with a choice in the type of Christian music we like to listen to. It's not trying to "sell" us on products we might need or want. It "sells" music that is good, clean and family friendly. It's not offensive in any way and is calming and spirtual. Please do not change it's status in my community. Please allow me this choice.